

MAPPING THE GROUND WE STAND ON

In 2015, as part of its commitment to support the findings of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, PWRDF developed the interactive “education for reconciliation” resource Mapping the Ground We Stand On. This workshop is available in-person and also has been adapted for Zoom. Using animation, videos, full and small group talking opportunities and more, this workshop, also known as the Mapping Exercise, invites participants to explore Indigenous presence on the map of Turtle Island/Canada, the history of Settler arrival, and their relationship to one another. It also offers an opportunity for learning and reflection on the concepts of Terra Nullius (empty land), the Doctrine of Discovery and Indigenous knowledge, enabling individuals and groups to imagine how both personal and collective journeys toward a just, respectful and healing relationship might look.

As an action in learning truth for reconciliation, All Saints Whitby Anglican Church will host an in-person Mapping the Ground We Stand On workshop.

Sunday, June 12th, from 1:15 – 4:15 P.M., including a break, facilitated by Greg Smith (PWRDF Huron) and Cheryl Marek (Diocese of Toronto).

Optional: lunch
